

Contact: Shannon Garvich or Trixie Rombouts, Dish D'Lish Inc.
(206) 784-7840 or e-mail info@kathycasey.com
*High resolution images are available.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dish D'Lish™ Flagship Café and Store Opens
Pike Place Market Store Moves to Ballard

(Seattle, WA)—February 22, 2007

Owners John and Kathy Casey have just opened their new Dish D'Lish café and store in Seattle's historic Ballard neighborhood. This new Dish D'Lish is a combination of the Sea-Tac airport cafés and previous Pike Place Market fresh foods-to-go concept. The new location features freshly made salads, hot pressed sandwiches, soup and baked goodies, espresso drinks and hand-shaken berry lemonades. You can take it out or eat it in, as there is seating available. In addition to the café items, they also feature a cold case full of D'Lish items from sides to entrees to take home for dinner, as well as wonderful dips, appetizer selections and sexy cheeses.

"We're thrilled to open the new flagship Dish D'Lish next to my long-time business, Kathy Casey Food Studios, located in Ballard – it is such a great neighborhood!" Kathy Casey said.

The retail section of the store has the whole line up of more than 20 Dish D'Lish specialty products such as chutneys, spreads, bread dippers, Cocktailor™ mixers, dressing and the ever-addictive French Seasoning Salt. The store will also be featuring Kathy's Limited Edition items, such as Kiwi Pepper Jelly made from kiwis grown in her own "urban parking lot garden," hand-picked Wild Huckleberry Jam and Tomato Ginger Jam ... the perfect accompaniment to a great cheese.

Other unique retail products include items from a small Italian importer out of San Francisco. Not found anywhere else in the Northwest, these items include hand-picked wild rose conserve that is "to die for," hand-rolled trofetti pasta from the Marella family out of Puglia, and pistachios floating in honey from Sicily. "And of course we feature lots of Northwest products," Kathy adds, including Essential Baking Co. organic breads, Salumi sausages, Estrella Creamery cheeses, 3400 Phinney Chocolate Factory chocolates and Alaskan smoked wild salmon.

The Caseys' longtime friend and associate, Janice Vaughns, is chef and manager. Janice features Food T' Go Go items available for office parties, employee events and client receptions, as well as Dish D'Lish Saks, their version of a to-go boxed meal. Just give them 72 hours' advance notice and they'll have everything ready for you to pick up.

Dish D'Lish is owned by John and Kathy Casey, long-time Ballard business owners. Kathy Casey Food Studios first moved into their Ballard location more than 8 years ago, and is home to Kathy Casey's hospitality consultation company and is also a popular venue for special events. The Caseys are excited to now have a newly opened Dish D'Lish right next door.

Dish D'Lish
Ballard Flagship Café & Store
5136 Ballard Ave NW
Seattle, WA 98107
206-789-8121
www.kathycasey.com

Current Hours:
Tuesday – Friday 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM
Saturday 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM
Sunday 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM
Monday - Closed